I, Randy Miller being duly sworn on oath make the following statement:

stuff from other trainers, hired staff to teach me and learned basic care of animals through on the job training. [REDACTED] was an animal trainer, but he was not actively training. [REDACTED] received training from California Canine Academy from 1992 to 1993. [REDACTED] raised exotics with me, but he did not have any exotic animal training. [REDACTED] had little experience with “Rocky” the bear, but he had experience with other exotic animals. [REDACTED] worked with Rocky two times. The bear was never aggressive towards [REDACTED] Rocky works every day at the compound and he is always affectionate. Rocky has been at Predators in Action for five years. Rocky is five years and four months old and weighs five to six hundred pounds. Rocky is fed six days a week. His meals consist of dog foods, vegetables, steakhouse beef and chicken. Rocky eats twenty pounds of food a day. Rocky was born at Yellowstone Bear World, 6010 S., 4300 West, Rockburg, IN 83440.

In regards to the bear attack that occurred on April 22, 2008, a promotional video was being filmed for [REDACTED]'s internet company Share Now.Com. I did an informal safety briefing to explain the shot set up, set up the hotline, explained how the hotline worked, position of the animal trainers and to keep [REDACTED] and the bear in the hotline area. Several safety precautions were in effect – we utilized a hotline (electric wire hooked to a hot box that has a trigger that will give off an electrical current), pepper spray and canes. No medical officer or
